“Let our wine passion be yours”

The producer : Olivier Depardon

Name : cuvee vieilles vignes

Since 1848, that is the same family making wine : Depardon family. The son, the father and the grandfather are still all involved in the wine making process. This morgon is elaborated with vines of 70 to 100 years of age, of black gamay. Located in the Beaujolais' crus, in the small city of Morgon-Villié, the soils are made of schistes and rocks. It is a fruit driven wine, powerfull, great structure & concentration and moreover gourmand. Minerality is also present with melting tannins. You will be amazed by this wine!
