

The World Winery | Wine Merchant

“Let our wine passion be yours”

The producer : Olivier Depardon

Name : cuvee vieilles vignes

Since 1848, that is the same family making wine : Depardon family. The son, the father and the grandfather are still all involved in the wine making process. This régnié is elaborated with vines of 50 years of age, of black gamay. Located in the Beaujolais' crus, in the small city of Morgon-Villié, the soils are made of sandy granite. It is a black fruit driven wine, cinnamon, dry raisins and the wine impress by its volume and generosity. Which is a sign for a good vintage wine, Surprisingly it is a fresh, vibrant wine

Type : red wine

Farming : organic practicing

Region : Burgundy, Beaujolais

Country : France

The Appellation: Régnié

Grape : black gamay 100%

Vinification: manual grape harvest. Aging for 6 to 8 months in wine tank

Vintage: 2018 Alcohol : 13%

Suggested food pairings: with any red, white meats and with cheeses

Press Reviews : One star award guide des vins Gettane + Desseauve

