

The World Winery | Wine Merchant

“Let our wine passion be yours”

The Producer: Jean Luc Clabaut

The name : le petit berticot

This Sauvignon blanc offers what you would expect for a dry white wine. White flowers nose, minerality, citrus, smooth palate.

Le petit berticot is produced by Jean Luc Clabaut. Whereas the Parisians use to come in the South west of France to enjoy seafood while at “le bassin d’Arcachon” loved to enjoy with it a glass of white wine. Therefore 8 years ago, Jean Luc Clabaut bought vineyard of Sauvignon blanc. Starting to produce ‘le petit berticot’.

Type: white wine

Farming : Organic practicing

Region : Bordeaux Country: France

The Appellation: IGP Atlantic, entre deux mers

Grapes : Sauvignon blanc

Vinification: This wine elaboration process follow a maceration for 2 weeks before to let it age in wine tanks for 6 months.

Vintage: 2016 Alcohol: 13%

Suggested food pairings: Serve between 8°C and 10°C. Pair well with all vegetables, grilled white meat and seafood

Press Reviews, awards - What others think of this wine: “ Celebrating with a french sauvignon blanc tonight, Grass, green apple and citrus. Nice minerality. Light with a punchy acidic finish. Cheers 🍷”

